

Longbow Making Course 10-11 October 2009

Two day longbow making course

Over two days you will make, and shoot, your own longbow.

You will learn about timber selection, be provided with a tri-laminate stave and then spend a full day shaping and personalising your own bow.

On the Sunday you will finish off your bow and shoot it in a short competition in the afternoon.

No previous experience is required.

For the price of a new longbow, you get not only the bow but also all the knowledge of how to make this traditional piece of English archery.

Tea, coffee and biscuits provided - bring your own lunch.

Please complete the application form in full and return with payment to:
